

Streamlined Design

These cabinets, chests and shelves showcase modern squared and rectilinear silhouettes for a no-frills approach to storage that is stylish and practical at once.

BY ALEXA BOSCHINI

Made in the United States of maple and poplar solids and veneers in a Dover Gray finish, the Sydney console table by David Lee Designs offers ample display space with three shelves ($1,095).

Planned accents on the drawer fronts lend a sense of depth to the Diamond double chest by Noir, made of walnut with a finish that underscores the wood's natural grain ($4,320).

The Anders sideboard by Ave Home evokes mid-century modern sensibilities, presented in a rich mahogany finish with slatted sliding doors ($2,844).

Squared metal door pulls dress up the sophisticated mahogany West End bar cabinet by Dimond Home, anchored by a clean base in a gloss white finish ($1,497).

The Naples dresser by Moe's Home Collection embodies a modern urban aesthetic with its brushed stainless steel legs and high-gloss gray finish ($1,325).

Linen insets and distressed ring hardware offset a wood frame in a crisp white finish to form the transitional Naomi chest by Gabby ($1,749).

This five-shelf bookcase by Bryan Keith for Stylecraft exudes minimalist appeal, made of metal and natural wood in a cypress finish.

Made of warm wood with a metal frame, the Tetrmino entertainment console by Furniture Classics delights with its asymmetrical modular shelves.

The sleek Modern sideboard by Gail's Accents features a black granite inset top and faux crocodile door fronts outlined in silver nailhead trim ($1,379).

An array of square beveled mirror adorns the door fronts of the Lockhart cabinet by Harp & Finial, made of hardwood in a distressed natural finish.